

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

THIS IS GIRL SCOUT WEEK and all over America attention is focused on that group of young girls who participate in scouting and attempt to live up to its goals. The Twirl, symbol of Girl Scouts states these goals clearly. It's three leaves stand for the three fold promise to "do my duty to God and country," "help other people at all times," and to "obey the Scout laws." And it is the second part of this that most little girls (as well as many big girls) find hardest to manage.

Sunday morning found the churches adorned with crisp brown or green uniforms, white gloves hands frequently adjusted the steeple bibles that would slide forward and the pastors did not have to state that Scout Week had begun as it was clearly evident to all. In our Methodist Church the bibles with their carefully enclosed flyers discussing scouting were handed out by the girls, the collection plates were passed in their slim young hands and two of the older scouts served as acolytes to touch the flames of their long brass lighters to the altar candles. And so it was all over Elba.

Other activities for the week included a Play Ceremony at the school on March twelfth, the birthday of the scout movement. In Washington at this same time a flag

New Hope Elementary 4-H Club Meets

The regular meeting of the New Hope Elementary 4-H Club was held Wednesday, February 19. The meeting was called to order by the president, A. J. Fleming, assistant ers, Maybelle Dyess and Kathy Miller. The devotion was given by devotionary leader, Eureka Stone. The pledges of allegiance to the American and 4-H flags were led by the vice-president. After the roll was called, the minutes were read and approved.

The demonstration on "Let's Make Biscuits" was given by Mrs. Georgia R. Fleming, assistant Home Agent. The meeting was adjourned until the March meeting.

One-half cup of creamed cottage cheese is about equal in protein to 3 ounces of lean meat, fish or poultry. For calorie counters, it is well to know that one-half cup of cream style cottage contains 120 calories.

THIS SMOKING BUSINESS...

This is too good to let get by. As all of you know I'm a nut about this smoking business. I have a good reason - I know of some serious results created by smoking first hand and that is the reason I am an extremist about it. I don't like to preach about smoking and I'm not opposed to it because I think of it as a sin unless you would say voluntarily damaging your health is a sin. I'm against smoking because of actually seeing the damage it does.

But be that as it may and as serious as smoking is to me this is a little funny. The I Quit Smoking fraternity inadvertently got a firm convert last week when an "evils of tobacco" demonstration took a surprise turn. Mrs. Carletta B. Glascock, of 258 Washington Avenue, Montgomery, said she was showing a friend how to smoke a cigarette but was halted in the demonstration when a fat little white worm crawled out. Mrs. Glascock said her friend lost her desire for cigarettes.

You know, come to think about it, it may be the little worms that are causing all the trouble instead of tobacco. Of course that is not true but a few white worms along with tobacco could kill a person quicker.

ELBA'S NEW BANK...

The new bank we have all been hearing about is not officially released as soon to be ready for business. The new bank, to be known as The Peoples Bank, will be located in the Emergency Aid Insurance Building on the square. The building is to be remodeled and turned into an attractive bank. The Elba Exchange Bank is building a new bank building. The lot has been cleared and work is to soon begin since the weather is getting better.

The new Elba Country Club will soon be opened to its members. The building has been completed and interior work is well underway.

So much has been accomplished here in Elba during the short time we have had a business interest here that, to me, it is unbelievable. I don't believe there is another city in Alabama that has accomplished as much in the little more than two years we have been in Elba.

While on the subject of progress, I want to say how much we have enjoyed our association with Elba and the people here. Though I have been so completely involved with business and have had little time to really get to be associated with anyone, anywhere socially, these past two years have been among the best years of my life. I think I have enjoyed seeing the progress that is being made here as much as anyone. If the present trend continues, this part of Coffee County will be hard to catch in progress. I really think we are well on our way to better things.

MISS FOYCE ANN BOWDOIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Bowdoin, captured first place in the solo twirling event at the Fifth Annual District Eight Twirling Contest held at Troy State College last Friday. She received a trophy for the first place prize.

Foyce Ann was in competition with twirlers from this district and Northwest Florida. The judges were three Troy State Twirlers.

This contest is not the first one that Foyce Ann has competed in. Last October she entered the "Miss Majorette of Alabama" contest at Elba next year.

Clark spent his days minding the store, but Deane packed his car with dresses and sold them from house to house. True to their business name, the partners literally accept anything in trade for merchandise. They once traded some rocking chairs for a load of peanut hay and then unloaded the hay in Montgomery County, making a nice profit on the deal.

All this is by way of background to the story of Deane's, a conventional business which is located in one of Elba's main streets. After about a year in operation, Deane bought out his partner's interest and changed the store name, at the same time clearing out the furniture and taking on ready to wear exclusively.

Deane added nationally advertised lines until the business bore very little resemblance to its original form. Today, to most people, Elba were elected officers of the Methodist Youth Fellowship Sub-District which met last Monday night at the Mr. Zion Methodist Church in Straughn, Alabama. This sub-district includes the Methodist Churches of Andalusia, Elba, Florida, Kinaton, Opp, Samson, and surrounding areas.

Those elected to serve for the 1964-65 conference year were as follows: President, Haskell Nevins, Kinaton; Vice president, Susan Cooper, Elba; secretary, Carolyn Helms, Andalusia; First, treasurer, Charlotte Davis, Opp Memorial; publicity chairman, Janet Murphree, Elba; social chairman, Opp First. The Elba Church was the only one to place two youth on the council for the new year. Mr. James Kelsoe from Opp was reappointed Sub-District Counselor.

In other business it was decided to send one member of the new council to the National Convocation of Methodist Youth to be held at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana on July 27-31, 1964. The Sub-District is to pay two-thirds of the expenses of the trip. Plans were also discussed to send a large delegation of youth from this Sub-District to the District Rally to be held at Blue Lake Camp Saturday, April 4.

Deane's stock includes men, women and children's wear. He has added several popular lines since the remodeling of his store in January.

Farm Briefs

U.S. consumers used a record 72.2 million pounds of shelled peanuts during the month of January.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture reports a decline in the number of milk cows on U.S. farms. There was also a decline in the amount of milk produced in the states last year.

Prune fruit trees for stronger limbs. Pruning usually results in smaller trees, but larger and better fruit.

Modern landscaping designs call for low-growing shrubs and trees.

Coffee County FARM NEWS

FARM NEWS
By TOM CASADAY, CO. AGENT

HOGS

Eugene Farris told me the other day that he is planning a concrete hog feeding operation on his farm.

He plans to use a stream that runs through his place cut down on the cost of cleaning.

When Eugene gets this in operation, I am sure that his neighbors and other people will enjoy seeing it.

CORN

To stay in the hog and cattle business, we simply must double corn yields in Coffee County. We averaged about 30 bushels per acre in 1963.

We need to go to an average of 60 bushels just as quick as possible. There are two things we can do this year to come a lot closer to this 60 bushel goal.

1. Plant corn thicker. Buy a plate that will put it down thicker than you planted last year.

2. Practically all Coffee County farmers need to use twice as much nitrogen as addressing per acre as they did in 1963.

You must plant thicker in order to increase the yield. It won't do much good to plant corn 2 feet apart in the drill and use 90 pounds of nitrogen. Space corn about 12 inches in the drill to get the best increase.

CATTLE SALE

Associate County Agent, J.R. Speed, Brown Bryars, President of the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association, and others in the county have been real busy this week making plans for the annual Spring Cattle Sale to be on Wednesday, April 1, in Elba.

This is also the day for the Coffee County 4-H, FFA and FFA Fair Calf Show and Sale.

Several committees working on this big event are doing a top job. I want to urge Coffee County people to come to Elba on Wednesday, April 1, to see this show and attend the sale.

TRACTORS

Tractors were really turning ground in Coffee County last week from north to south, east to west. Two things come to my mind when I see this much activity going on.

The first thing is that I would like to caution the operators to be real careful. Don't take chances with tractors and equipment. You can be killed or seriously injured in a matter of seconds.

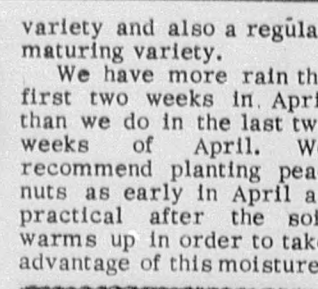

The second thing that comes to my mind is the fact that breaking land and harrowing land is tough on tractors. Be sure to check your air cleaner and keep plenty of clean oil in your tractor.

AROUND &amp; ABOUT WITH 4-H

Oscar Strickland, Program Specialist, Auburn University Extension Service, was a visitor in the Goodman 4-H Club on Wednesday of last week.

Oscar was impressed with the fine way that the officers conducted the meetings. I would like to invite the parents of 4-H Club members to attend the next club meeting in your community.

Clubs will not be held this week due to the AEA Holidays.

GUY WESLEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wesley, Chancellor, Route 1, is busy these days getting his calf ready for the show and sale in Elba on April 1. We hope that you have already marked this date on your calendar. Attend the show beginning at 9:00 a.m. and the sale at 1:30 p.m. Plan now to check your freezer and buy a calf if you need one.

SIXTEEN 4-H CLUB boys will receive enough corn free to plant one acre each. The purpose of this program is to encourage boys to follow recommended practices in order to increase yields. These boys will be competing with each other for the highest yield.

FARM NEWS BRIEFS

One ton of peanuts per acre was the order of the day last Wednesday night in Dothan. Approximately 200 peanut farmers from the peanut section of Alabama attended the ton-per-acre meeting. Those attending from Coffee County were: M.J. Sanders, Dolan Averett, Edwin Averett, Don Smith, Ray Bry, Clem Henderson, Johnny Jones, Monroe Mynard, and Horace Grahman.

Rufus Wilson, Doyce Stewart, Lem Hornsby, Marlin Downing, Billy Hornsby, Ray Danner, Joel Moody, W. H. Rhoades, Carter Rhoades, John Wilson, Hill Wise, Ideal Rugg, and Joe Bruce were all eligible to attend but did not make it.

Speaking of peanuts, Billy Hornsby and Edwin Averett were the high men in the county last year making 2600 and 2605 lb. yields respectively.

Don Smith of Enterprise, Route 1, produced over one ton per acre on 98.4 acres. It's hard to beat this when it comes to producing peanuts.

There will not be a ton per acre program next year.

year. Due to the fact that peanut yields have increased and the number of ton per acre producers like-wise, the program has been changed. Next year the yield has been increased to 2,500 pounds for this club.

If you have not considered thirp control on your peanuts, let me encourage you to do so. Talk with your neighbor about thirp control—he has probably already tried it.

Planting time is just around the corner. If you are interested in chemical weed control, begin now to plan for it. If you need any help, just call on us.

Modern landscaping designs call for low-growing shrubs and trees.

If you have had trouble with pine seedlings dying, try planting them deeper.

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

A PLEASANT DAY IN Selma was enjoyed by Mary Newton and Mr. C. B. McDowell last week when they visited Mrs. Dona Perdue. They report that Mrs. Perdue was feeling fine and asked about her many friends here in Elba. Since going to live in Selma, Mrs. Perdue has undergone a second eye operation but is in wonderful spirits. Mary said that she urged her friends to come to see her.

A GATHERING OF THE clan occurred on Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Jacobs were visited by Harry B. and Yarell Jacobs and Vellie and Bessie Jacobs of Montgomery. They were joined by Charles and Pat Sauter of Pensacola. Pat and her young son Mickey stayed over for several days longer.

SPEAKING OF Pensacola, Eric Kermel and Gregory Crook were there recently to visit Rhetta Ann and Jerry Cogan. Rhetta Ann is thoroughly enjoying her work in the bank there and taking several courses at the college across the street from her home.

CONGRATULATIONS to Kimmie Dorsey on his election as president of the Truck-Trailer Manufacturers Association. As this is an international group the honor is certainly awe-inspiring and we can imagine the responsibilities are commensurate.

THE Third District Dental Association held its quarterly meeting at Port Rucker on Thursday and Friday. Doctor James Clarendon, the featured speaker, was Doctor Frank Andrews of Montgomery, well known oral surgeon, who is president of the State Dental Association. After the informative program the men enjoyed a social hour and a few holes of golf.

ONE MORE WORD ABOUT THE SCOUTS and then we'll try to inform ourselves. But everything we see and hear about this program convinces us further that it's the best thing that could happen to our daughters.

Certainly every child was happy Friday night at the Father-Daughter Box Supper. Never saw the men looking finer, each one escorting an obviously proud little girl who carried her bright yellow or green box at a perilous angle with its gay ribbon bouncing saucily.

The scene appealed to us. The long tables were centered with crepe paper runners to match the color of the uniforms and sunny yellow was the complementary color. Bowls of greenery were adorned with thin brass trefleils.

Grill Scout symbol, and placecards were varied but all in green, yellow or brown and bearing the proper emblem. One table held an arrangement of yellow "poppies", each one made of several trefleils back to back, which we thought clever and one table boasted yellow candles (we knew immediately who their leader was). But the prettiest decorations there were the faces of the little girls, shifting eyes looking up, up, up to their tall fathers who were the most wonderful persons in the whole wide world. It would be a shame for any man to cause that expression to falter.

The guest speaker told the most exciting things looming in the future for scouts. In April five hundred girls will spend the weekend at Laverne, given only tents and water and see how well they can manage all phases of their day—the cooking, erection of tents, etc. For younger girls there will be a two week Day Camp at "Singing Pines" that we're looking forward to. And on the horizon is the possibility of a real campsite for our area. Now let's all go a-scouting!

It takes a clean mop to do a good job, so wash yours often by pushing the mop up and down in hot soapy water. After rinsing, wring it as dry as possible and "comb" out the strands before drying.

Ready-to-serve cereals in multipacks of small portions may cost two or three times more per ounce than the same cereal in a larger box.

NEUROSIS AND PSYCHOSIS WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

Neurosis is defined as a mild emotional disorder in which you might experience feelings of anxiety, make compulsive acts and usually have physical complaints without specific evidence of disease. Psychosis is any major, severe form of mental illness.

Most everybody has a neurosis occasionally and sometimes a mild tranquilizer is prescribed to help ease the stress. With a psychosis, treatment calls for strong medication in many cases. There are hundreds of drugs available for mild or severe mental problems. We carry them all in our prescription stocks.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

NO PLACE TO GO

All dressed up, the expression goes, and no place to go. These boys are hardly "dressed up." But the rest of the description fits them perfectly.

They are two of the millions of American children who are growing up WITHOUT A CHURCH. Boys with the God-given right to grow up in faith... with the American right to worship God freely according to the dictates of their own conscience. But someone hasn't understood their rights.

Parents who make no provision for their children's religious education are, in effect, robbing these children of the most precious heritage of every American. Growns who, by the tell-tale example of indifference, encourage boys and girls to emulate the Godlessness that the Iron Curtain seeks to foster are undermining the spiritual substance of our nation.

No more serious problem faces America today than the children who on Sunday morning in a land of churches have no place to go.

Better To Change Members Of Supreme Court

Congress is working on a law where it won't be illegal to have public prayer. They are trying to plug up some loopholes that brought about the Supreme Court decision last year. Instead of changing the law, they should change the members of the court. There are men on the court who never got around to practicing law, except maybe a few cases where they defended some fellow in a justice of peace trial and got him off with a fine of $14.75, which is what it would have been without a lawyer.

If Congress wants to do something, they could set up some strict qualifications for Supreme Court Justices should have before he can be named to what was once a group of capable, experienced, and dignified lawyers. Presidents have started making the appointments for purely political reasons. Nowadays, a Judge and a Veterinarian have to go to school the same length of time. Actually, it takes a little longer to learn what's wrong with a goat than it does to learn what's wrong with a law.

Regardless of what the Supreme Court says, I'm going to keep on praying whenever I get ready. Sometimes I pray for the Judges and they need a lot of praying for. I also pray for the Presidents who made the appointments.

What I can't figure out is why I'm always writing about things I can't do anything about. Here I've been writing this column for 30 years and it's downright disheartening to look back and see how little I have actually accomplished in that length of time. My campaign against English peas represents my most miserable flop. After 30 years of work I read a little piece in a farm journal where Americans ate more English peas in 1963 than ever before. The reason, they eat the things, a friend said, is because there are so many more members of civic clubs, more PTA banquets, more conventions, and the like, and the plates are so skimpy they have to eat the peas or else go hungry while some fellow is reading a speech. That made me feel a little better, but not much.

At various times in the 30 year period, I have tried to get owners to clean up vacant lots. I have conducted campaigns against littering. I have led the fight against unnecessary noises at night. I waged a one-man war against people putting politicians' pictures on poles and never coming back to take them down after the elections. Right now, after all my hard work, little children can get lost while playing in the high grass on vacant lots. The highway department has been forced to increase the workers who pick up papers, boxes and beer cans along the roads. There are still some pictures of Thomas E. Dewey on telephone poles. More people can blow more homes and slam doors louder than ever before. The sad part is that I'm not even holding my own in my various dogood campaigns. Last week I wrote what I thought was a fair article on the Beatles. Some sweet teenager wrote me a letter in which she accused me of being "dumb" five different times. For her information, I have never made the statement that I wasn't dumb, so actually there is no cause for an argument. Happily, we are together, and it made me feel good to know that our young people will fight for the things they believe in. It is her right to think the Beatles can sing, and it is my right to think they can't. One night a bunch of us made up a pot of about three dollars and gave it to some young boys to climb the hill and push it over. Naturally, we thought it would fall to pieces, but it was well constructed and it toppled down the hill and came to rest not more than 5 feet from the highway. The only thing that was hurt about it was the door, which wouldn't close. It stayed there about two weeks, for all the motorists to see, but finally somebody set it aside.

I won't campaign, but it had to be done the hard way.

Price Support Available To Feed Grain Participants

Growers who participate in the 1964 feed grain program will thereby qualify for price support on their 1964 crop of corn, grain sorghum, and barley. Roy L. Ellis, Chairman, announced. Sign up for the program will continue at the ASCS County Office through March 27.

As last year, support for the three crops will be made available partly through price-support payments and partly through loans and purchase agreements. While rates of loans vary by counties, rates of the price-support payments are the same throughout the country. Loans and purchase agreements for the 1964 crops will reflect national average prices of $1.10 per bushel for corn, 84 cents per bushel for barley, and $1.77 per hundredweight for grain sorghum. Participating farmers will be able to put all of their 1964 crop of corn, grain sorghum, and barley under price-support loans and purchase agreements. Rates of the price-support payments have been set at 15 cents per bushel for corn, 12 cents per bushel for barley, and 23 cents per hundredweight for grain sorghum. The price-support payments will be made on the normal production of the acreage planted to the three feed grains in 1964; the payment is assured no matter what disposition is made of the crop. In general, Mr. Ellis explained, feed grain producers will participate in the program by reducing their acreages of one or more of the three crops by at least 20 percent of the farm's base acreage and devoting such acreage to an approved conserving use. By such participation, farmers earn a diversion payment as well as qualify for the loans, purchase agreements, and price-support payments. Diversion payments under the 1964 program will average higher than last year and the maximum is higher for diversion.

Oats and rye are not included in the 1964 feed grain program, therefore eligibility for price support on these two crops is not dependent on participation in the program.

The average consumer will eat the equivalent of 33 hogs, 10 lambs, eight steers and four veal calves during his meat-eating days.

DARKROOM WORK FOR THE MOLES...

I have taken so many pictures this week and worked in the darkroom so much I'm beginning to feel like a mole. I enjoy doing pictures but this has been the roughest week I have had in many months from the standpoint of the number of pictures taken. But I think that wouldn't have been so had it not been for the fact that we had many more pictures than we could get in the paper this week. That worries me when I feel that the interested party will be disappointed.

I don't like to make excuses but it is necessary again this week. We increased to two extra pages and are still short of space.

2 YEARS ENJOYMENT WITH "THE CLIPPER"

We have been with The Elba Clipper for more than two years now and have enjoyed every minute of it. Especially noticeable is the cooperation we have received here. We are grateful for the many who have been so prompt to notify us of news items that are of interest to others. We appreciate the many pictures that have been sent to us other than those we have taken ourselves. We appreciate the County Farm Agent for furnishing us with pictures of interest to farmers of Coffee County. Thanks to all of you for your help toward adding interest to this newspaper.

DON'T MAKE GOOD SENSE TO ME...

I'm still at a loss as to why the state has NO CONTROL over the schools in Alabama, yet the federal government does. Seems that things are a little warped to me.

I'LL TRY THE "WILL POWER" PILLS METHOD NEXT.

I'm still trying but accomplishing nothing. I'm even threatening now to see if I can find a doctor who will slice the fat off me. I haven't tried the "will-power" pills yet but I'm looking around for a supply. I have just about quit weighing. Every time I step on those scales they're inclined to go up an ounce or so instead of going down. Mack is telling about me threatening to throw the scales out the door. I sure is discouraging. I don't think I will weigh again, ever.

Western Auto Opens Catalog Order Center

The Elba Western Auto dealer store, owned by Walter Cox, this week announced the opening of a new catalog order center as an added service for customers in this area. A formal announcement appears in a display advertisement in The Clipper this week. Cox said the new service is part of a nationwide catalog program being launched by Western Auto at this time through its 438 company stores and more than 4,000 home-owned and operated dealer stores.

The distribution of millions of colorful catalogs is now being made in all sections of the nation and should be completed soon. The catalog, with 320 pages, lists thousands of items offered by Western Auto. Cox said he will complete distribution of the catalogs to his customers in the next few days.

Cox pointed out that the new catalog order service enables him to offer literally thousands of merchandise items which space would not permit him to display in his store.
